

Robert L. Alinger

Robert Lucas Alinger recently joined Boyd Commercial, LLC in June of 2007. Robert comes to us from Marcus & Millichap where he specialized in the investment sales of office, industrial, and medical properties. Robert's focus will be representing user companies and investment owners in leasing, tenant representation, investment sales, and acquisitions of industrial and office properties in the Southwest Houston market.

Robert is a native Texan and was born in Houston. Robert graduated from the University of Houston in 2006 with a Bachelors of Science in Construction Management Technology. While at U of H, Robert was the Vice President of his fraternity (Sigma Phi Epsilon) and competed in State Natural Body Building competitions. Robert is a member of the University of Houston Alumni Association and the Sigma Phi Epsilon Alumni Association. Since graduating Robert has worked in the commercial construction industry and has since transitioned to commercial real estate. He enjoys playing golf, mountain biking, and wakeboarding in his spare time.
